

SILVER MEN DOWNED BY A BIG MAJORITY

VOTE AGAINST FREE COINAGE
IS 215 TO 90.

Ex Speaker Crisp, His Colleague, Mr. Turner, and Mr. Dalzell Deliver the Final Speeches—Some Notable Arguments Made in the Closing Hours.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The majority against silver in the house Friday, when the final vote was taken on concurrence in the senate free-coinage amendment, was larger than that of Thursday in committee of the whole. On that day the motion to concur was defeated, 190 to 80, a majority of 110; Friday it was beaten 215 to 90, a majority of 125.

The vote was a record-making vote, and, counting the pairs, but thirty-seven out of 356 members were unaccounted for. The silver men who predicted a much greater show of strength were again disappointed. The "sound money" leaders had been disposed to concede the silver forces 100 votes. An analysis of the vote shows that 184 republicans and thirty-one democrats voted against concurrence and fifty-eight democrats, twenty-five republicans, and seven populists for concurrence.

The debate which preceded the vote was of an interesting character, but devoid of any sensational features. Ex-Speaker Crisp presented the closing argument for the silver men and was replied to by Mr. Turner, a democratic colleague from Georgia, in a two-hour speech. Mr. Dalzell of Pennsylvania closed in behalf of the republicans.

Mr. Dingley, chairman of the ways and means committee, insisted on the regular order as soon as the journal had been read and, under the arrangement made Thursday, one hour was allowed on each side for closing.

Mr. Crisp opened his argument proper with the familiar words: "In 1873 congress demonetized silver." At the very threshold of the subject, he said, this was denied and it was also denied that up to 1873 we had had bimetalism in this country. He quoted Baron Rothschild's statement that prices were regulated by the aggregate amount of the circulation, gold and silver. Prices were fixed by the amount of primary money in the world. If the standard in England was gold, in France silver, and in China silver, the measure of values would be the combined amount of both gold and silver circulating as money. Money was the thing for which all contended and the sum of the demand for money was equal to the demand for all things else on earth. If a metal were made money by law a demand for that metal would be created among all the people and its value would necessarily increase with the increased demand.

Here the speaker read from statements made by Senator Sherman in 1876, that the demonetization of silver had caused a reduction of its price and had created a mad scramble for gold on the part of England, France and Germany, which had depreciated its price and had induced a fall in prices throughout the world. That fall in prices, Mr. Crisp asserted, was largely due, he would not say wholly, to the demonetization of silver. It was not the fall of prices that was complained of, but the constant and steady fall of prices due to the constant appreciation of gold. He read from Mr. Balfour's speech of Feb. 11, in the English parliament, attributing the decline of agriculture in gold countries to the appreciation of gold and the artificial advantage it gave to silver countries. Mr. Balfour had also declared that the obstacles to reform came not from abroad, but were put forward at home. Continuing, Mr. Crisp affirmed the existence of a well-defined purpose by those in authority both here and abroad to depress the price of silver in order to prevent its remonetization. He cited the manner in which the Bland-Allison act of 1878 was executed, the coinage of the minimum amount under the act and the refusal of the treasury after a few months to coin silver under the act of 1890. He cited Secretary Carlisle's refusal to give silver for gold in 1893—"because the silver was needed for the redemption of the treasury notes," and his course a few months afterward in redeeming those notes in gold. "What kind of juggling is that?" he asked. "What sort of friendly treatment of silver is that?"

Mr. Crisp then directed his attention to the manner in which the parity between the metals had been maintained. Every obligation of the government, bonds, greenbacks and treasury notes, was payable in coin. If that was not true, and they were gold obligations, why did not those who believed that have the courage to say so and save the tax-ridden people millions in interest?

In February, 1895, congress could have saved the people $16,000,000 in interest by authorizing gold bonds. "Congress refused," said Mr. Crisp. "We paid $16,000,000 for the privilege of paying in silver, and now you attempt to deny our right to do so." Criticizing the bond bill, he declared that its purpose was to impound the greenbacks and do indirectly what the majority dare not do directly. It was a plan to retire all the greenbacks by holding them in the treasury at the cost of outstanding interest-bearing bonds, a plan which Mr. Carlisle had characterized as the "most remarkable experiment suggested in modern times." Coming down to the practical question whether the United States independently could maintain with free coinage the parity between gold and silver, he said that there is no difference of opinion that it could be accomplished by an international agreement. As a historical fact, France has maintained the parity for seventy years. If four or five countries could maintain a parity, it was conceded that law could effect the result. How powerful must a state be, then, to effect that result?

The speaker quoted from Jackson and Jefferson, and contemptuously said it had remained for modern economists to assert that to create demand and value by law was a "physical and metaphysical absurdity." He also quoted Mr. Sherman and Mr. Carlisle, to the effect that the united action of several countries could sustain silver. As to the ability of the United States to do so alone, the example of France, a country infinitely inferior in wealth and trade to us, must be borne in mind. Our commerce, internal and external, exceeded that of England, Germany and France combined, and our resources were as yet undeveloped. Our population exceeds that of any of those three countries. If our mints were opened to the free coinage of silver, the commercial value of the metal would be equal to its legal value in this country, because any one having 412½ grains could bring it here and get a standard silver dollar's worth of commodities. In this connection he went somewhat extensively into figures to show that there had been no over-production of silver.

In conclusion, Mr. Crisp declared that if the United States would but assert its political and financial independence, prosperity would return and continue the perpetual heritage of our people.

Mr. Turner (dem., Ga.) was then, at the request of Mr. Dingley, recognized for an hour. Mr. Turner expounded exhaustively with copious illustrations from our history Gresham's law that whenever an attempt is made to circulate concurrently two metals of different values, the cheaper metal would always drive the dearer out of circulation. He then addressed himself to the question whether the United States independently could restore the parity of gold and silver. He would, he said, use every test known to human tribunal. He would summon Mexico and China, where silver was coined and was worth its commercial value. He would summon Japan, that noble strapping of the east, just feeling her strength and just about to abandon the exploded theories of silver monometallism. On the other hand as witnesses against this theory, he would summon the enlightened and cultivated countries of the world, England, Germany, Russia, Austria, and France. They had all closed their mints to silver.

Proceeding, the speaker took up the Bland-Allison and Sherman silver laws under which $400,000,000 of silver had been coined. Yet those laws had not imparted value to silver, for its value had gone down and down and down until India, the great reservoir of the white metal, had in 1893 driven the final nail in the coffin of silver by closing her mints. There was $4,000,000,000 of silver in the world according to the report of the director of the mint. Over $2,700,000,000 had been coined by the countries of the world. If a liberal use of silver or legal enactment could sustain value, why had the commercial price in view of these facts gone down steadily? Mr. Turner announced it as his opinion that a debtor nation should pay its debts in the best money in the world in order to maintain a high standard of credit. Moreover, not an individual would profit by paying his debts in a depreciated currency. In the ethics of nations we could not afford to take advantage of a technical error and pay our creditors in a cheap money. Instead of paying one dollar for two he would rather pay two for one; but this was not required. Like honest men we must only pay dollar for dollar.

Mr. Turner met a volley of questions toward the close of his speech. He declared that if the law authorizing the secretary to sell gold were repealed that moment the parity would fall and the country would go to a silver basis. The Gresham law, a law congress did not make and could not repeal, was already operating. He concluded with the statement that the poor man in whose interest the restoration of silver was invoked was most interested in preserving a sound financial system. France had tried free coinage. It had failed and she abandoned it. Agitation of the silver question should cease. Perhaps when credit and enterprise had gone down in the wreck the people would conclude that it were better to follow the paths of experience and honestly seek to maintain the credit and honor of the country.

Mr. Dalzell (rep., Pa.) also a member of the ways and means committee, brought the house back to the question whether it should abrogate its duty and judgment to the senate; whether the house should abandon its bill and accept that of the senate. Mr. Dalzell said there was conclusive proof in the past experience of Europe that silver would not appreciate as a result of opening the mints to silver coinage. He devoted some time to replying to the argument of the silver men that the fall of prices since 1873 had been coincident with the fall of silver, which latter fall was due to the demonetization of 1873. The fall was due to invention, competition, the reduction in the cost of transportation, etc. Methods had been revolutionized since 1873.

INCREASE OF CONFIDENCE IN Eastern Trade Reports.

New York, Feb. 15.—R. G. Dun & Co's. Weekly Review of Trade says: "The weather still hinders business. With continued closeness of money and prolonged inaction of congress, but confidence increases.

"The production of pig iron, 198,599 tons weekly, Feb. 1, is 4.3 per cent less than Jan. 1, and 8.5 per cent less than Nov. 1, while the unsold stocks increased 63,188 tons in January, showing an output much exceeding the present demand, and, moreover, larger stocks than for a long time are carried by the great steel works. Pig iron at the east and at Chicago has not advanced, southern competition continuing at prices so low that several Alabama furnaces have stopped, but Bessemer is a shade lower at Pittsburgh.

"The demand for plates, sheets, and wire nails continues fairly good, and there are more orders for railroad cars and bar iron at Chicago, but no further sales of rails appear, and the demand for finished products keeps but 70 per cent of the capacity employed.

"The coke output is again much reduced. "Copper is a shade firmer at 10½ cents, while tin and lead are not active, and unchanged.

"The demand for boots and shoes is still disappointing; several factories have closed and few are working full time. Belief in lower prices still prevails, although further reductions have been made in most lines, amounting since Jan. 1 to 6 per cent. Some makers get good orders for women's light shoes, but others scarcely any, and Boston shipments thus far are 21 per cent less than last year.

"Textile work shows little change, though the cut in print cloths to 2.75 cents, and a general concession in brown and bleached staples, averaging for the whole list quoted 6 per cent since Jan. 1, induced more buying, which the known accumulation of goods ahead of demand has hindered. Many mills are reporting great profits last year from the rise in cotton, but the prospect of a larger crop this year does not promise repetition of such gains. Though goods still average 12.7 per cent above their lowest point last year, cotton is now 44 per cent higher than it was then.

"Sales of wool have been small for two weeks of February, 9,320,700 pounds, against 10,260,550 last year, and 12,502,550 in 1893, but higher prices abroad, sustained by heavy shipments of goods to this country, incline holders of wool here to make no concessions, so that manufacturers have the more difficulty in meeting competition.

"Produce markets tend downward, mainly because supplies exceed expectations. Wheat has declined ¾ cent with western receipts 3,022,306 bushels, against 875,199 last year, while Atlantic exports for two weeks have been only 3,639,195 bushels, against 2,721,344 last year.

"Corn is a shade lower, and both pork and lard a little lower.

"Cotton receipts, at this season never large, still indicate a supply for the current crop year, including stocks brought over, much in excess of the world's needs, so that the prospect of increased acreage has the more power to depress prices, and spot cotton has declined an eighth for the week. Exports in January were 8,653,566 less than last year, though prices were 45 per cent higher.

"Failures for the week have been 321 in the United States, against 270 last year, and 67 in Canada, against 51 last year."

DECLARES FOR SILVER.

Nebraska Prohibition State Convention
Adopts a Financial Plan.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 15.—After a most stormy session, the prohibition state convention adjourned Friday afternoon. Delegates and alternates were elected to represent Nebraska at the national convention at Pittsburg March 27. Following is the financial plank of the platform: "The money of the country should be issued by the general government only through government banks of loan and deposit, directly to the people, upon adequate security and at a uniform rate of interest. It should be full legal tender for payment of all debts, public and private, without exception or former contract stipulation. We favor a money composed of legal-tender treasury notes, based on the credit of the nation, and the full, free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, in which the bonded indebtedness of the country shall be paid."

Three Railroads Make Rates.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 15.—The Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad has announced that it would make as long a time limit on the tickets for the G. A. R. encampment at St. Paul as any other road running into the Twin Cities. This makes three roads that have agreed to a thirty-day limit, and it meets the requirements of the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army. The other roads are the Wisconsin Central

POOR PEARL BRYAN DIED IN KENTUCKY

CONCLUSIVE PROOF IN THE MURDER CASE.

Identification of the Hat Found Near the Body Is Regarded as Positive
Evidence—Head of the Murdered
Girl Not Yet Discovered—Officers
Hard at Work.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 15.—The identification of the hat found near the place where the body of Pearl Bryan was found is regarded as one of the most conclusive proofs that the crime of murder took place at that location, and not in Cincinnati. There is further corroboration of this theory in the finding of a black bead such as was on the hat of the murdered girl very near where the body was left. This would indicate a struggle and some violence, and that the hat was worn by the victim at that time and place. When found, the hat was some distance away and was weighed down by a bowdler tied in a handkerchief which has been identified as belonging to Jackson.

Search in the canal and other places for the missing head was unsuccessful. But the head is no longer needed to prove the crime or to point out the criminal. Public pity for friends of the murdered girl is so strong that rewards amounting to nearly $1,000 have been offered for information that will lead to finding the head. The fact that Jackson and Walling, who have freely told where they put the girl's clothing, still refuse the friends of their victim the information which would enable them to give Pearl Bryan's whole body decent interment, intensifies if possible the loathing which their unparalleled brutality in the murder has created.

The requisition moves slowly. Some error in the papers has required correction, and it appears that the hastily drawn indictment has been found to be imperfect and Judge Helm has instructed the grand jury to withdraw it and report another in corrected form. It is said opposition to the extradition will be made on the ground that there is danger of mob violence.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 15.—Requisition papers for Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling, the murderers of Pearl Bryan, have not been issued as yet. Governor Bradley will issue the requisitions today, and says if Sheriff Plummer needs any assistance for the protection of the prisoners at Newport, the arsenal of Kentucky is at his command. It is not expected that Jackson and Walling will now be transferred until next week, as their lawyers will go to Governor Bushnell to contest the requisition.

EXCITED BY A RUMOR.

Unfounded Story that Grant Atterberry's
Slayers Were Known.

Sullivan, Ill., Feb. 15.—There was some excitement here when it was reported that the second jury impaneled to hold an inquest in the Atterberry case had recommended the arrest of three well-known citizens. It was later ascertained that the rumor was a mistake. Judge Vail denounces the lynching and says the mob is a band of murderers. What action he will take when the grand jury meets is unknown, but it is believed he will demand that they find out the men who participated in the lynching.

Grant Atterberry's brother-in-law, of Moweaqua, was in this city Thursday and threatened to burn the place to get revenge. The mayor immediately gave him notice to stop his threats and leave the city or he would be put under arrest. An attempt was made to interview Mrs. Grant Atterberry, but she said she would shoot the first newspaper man that entered her house.

Venezuelan Commission Hard at Work

Washington, Feb. 15.—The Venezuelan commission was hard at work Friday with all of the members present. The commission is highly gratified with the position taken by Great Britain in responding favorably to its request to be supplied with information relative to the location of the boundary line. If by independent inquiry the commission can become possessed of other facts, so much the better, but as it stands the response of the two parties insures a thoroughness for the investigation that it would otherwise be difficult to impart.

Republican Convention Hall.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 15.—A new building, to be called the convention auditorium, will be constructed for the accommodation of the republican national convention. The site for the building is undetermined and will perhaps be decided at another conference held this afternoon. The building will have a comfortable seating capacity of 12,000.

Investigating Nansen Story.

London, Feb. 15.—Every effort is being made by the Royal Geographical society to ascertain if the story that Dr. Nansen, the arctic explorer, has been heard from is true, and in addition the Russian and Swedish governments have taken active steps to find out the real facts in the case. At present the report is generally disbelieved.

Attempt to Poison a Family.

Fish Lake, Ind., Feb. 15.—A sensation has been caused here by the charge of Henry Williams that an attempt was made to kill him and his family by some unknown person putting poison in their tea.

DOUBLE MURDER AND SUICIDE.

George Jones Kills His Sweetheart, Her Mother, and Himself.

Centerville, Iowa, Feb. 15.—George Jones shot and killed his sweetheart, Leah Martin, her mother, Mrs. W. J. Martin, and then put a bullet into his own head Friday evening. The reasons for the deed are unknown, but it is supposed the parents of the girl, with whom Jones had been keeping company for two years, had objected to their relations. Jones was of a good family, and the Martins are also highly respected people. Jones went to their home on the street car, and the last seen of him alive was when he entered the house. A short time after several shots were heard. Neighbors rushed to the house, and found Mrs. Martin and her daughter on the floor. Mrs. Martin had a bullet in her head and one in her breast, and was dead. The daughter had a bullet in her head and one in her neck, and, although not dead yet, has been unconscious, and will die in a few hours at most. Jones was found outside the house with a great hole in his temple, and his brains oozing out. The scene in the house indicated that Jones had gone there and had a quarrel with the girl, and that her mother had interfered, and that Jones shot the mother first, and then the daughter.

IOWA LEGISLATURE.

Assembly Will Be Ready to Adjourn on April 15.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 15.—The house has demonstrated that no insurmountable barriers to code revision exist when the work is taken up in earnest. The feeling that the house at least can complete the work without the necessity for a special session is strong, and Speaker Byers anticipates that the assembly will be ready to adjourn April 15 with none of its work unfinished. The resolution providing for the submission of a constitutional amendment permitting woman suffrage was favorably reported to the house.

The senate put in the session discussing the age of consent bill. The minority report of the committee on judiciary fixing the age at 16 was finally adopted. Several amendments were then offered to the bill and finally the whole matter was referred again to the judiciary committee, which, it is believed, will ultimately report a compromise bill fixing the age at 15 years.

The house committee on military will report against any appropriations for monuments to Iowa soldiers to be erected on southern battle fields.

For One Platform and One Ticket.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 15.—A. Roselle of Lamar, Mo., chairman of the populist state committee, and a member of the national committee, is here for the purpose of conferring with H. E. Taubeneck. "We have decided to work in harmony with the bimetalists throughout the country," he said. "What is wanted is one platform governing the bimetalists and the populists, and one list of candidates. I don't think there will be any difficulty in carrying out this plan. A committee will be appointed shortly to confer with leading bimetalists on the consolidation question."

Fear Ship and Crew Are Lost.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 15.—It is feared in shipping circles here that the British steamship Aswanby, Capt. Cameron, from Hamburg Jan. 14 for Philadelphia, with a crew of thirty-five men and 4,300 tons of beet sugar, valued at upward of $300,000, has foundered at sea, as nothing has been heard from her since Jan. 19, when she passed Dunnet Head, having taken the northern route through what is known as the Pentland Firth, one of the most dangerous localities known to navigators. Should the vessel have foundered at sea the loss will foot up to upward of $500,000.

In Behalf of Mrs. Maybrick.

London, Feb. 15.—The international Maybrick committee, an organization formed for the purpose of working in behalf of the pardon of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, confined in Woking prison on conviction of poisoning her husband, has submitted an exhaustive presentation of the case to the home secretary, presenting new and important matters for his consideration.

Marines Sent to Seoul.

Yokohama, Feb. 15.—Detachments of British, American and French marines have been sent to Seoul, the capital of Corea, in view of the disorder attendant upon the revolution. The king remains at the Russian legation. A new cabinet has been formed and a mandate ordering the execution of the former ministers has been issued.

Gen. Weyler to Take the Field.

Havana, Feb. 15.—It is learned unofficially that General Weyler will personally take the field very soon. His purpose is said to be to place his command between the armies of Gomez and Maceo in the neighborhood of Quivican and force one or both to give battle immediately.

Peter Maher's Eyes Improving.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 15.—The chance of having a championship prize-fight depends whether or not Peter Maher has his eyesight with him next Monday. He is up at Las Cruces receiving every possible attention. At 10 o'clock last night a telephone message was received from John J. Quinn at Las Cruces. He said that Maher's eyes were in better condition, and he felt hopeful that Peter would be fit to fight on Monday.

FOUR WERE KILLED AND OTHERS HURT

REPUBLIC, MICH., THE SCENE OF A HORROR.

Eight Miners Crushed By a Capsized
Skip—Engineer Got No Signal to Stop and Tightened the Cable Until Four of the Helpless Workmen
Were Dead.

Republic, Mich., Feb. 15.—A terrible accident occurred this morning at 6 o'clock in the Republic mine, while the men were coming up from the skip. They had been at work all night in shaft No. 1. As they came out the skip, jumped the track, and as there were no signals to give the engineer the skip was pulled on until it turned over and killed four men and injured several. The killed and injured are:

Wm. McGraw, single, killed.
James Dodge, married, killed.
Adolph Eitel, married, killed.
Matthias Tagelberg, married, killed.
Charles Anderson, several ribs broken.

Erick Marti, leg crushed.
James McGraw, back hurt.
Andrew Peterson, internal injuries.

KELLARS NOT GUILTY.

Acquitted of the Charge of Murdering
Clara Shanks.

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb. 15.—Dan Kellar and his wife and sister were acquitted by the jury of the charge of murdering Clara Shanks. The jury had been out twenty-two hours when it returned the verdict, which was in favor of the accused on the reasonable doubt that they may not have committed the crime. They left at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon for their home, and said they did not anticipate violence at the hands of their neighbors.

The jury came into court at 9:35 Friday morning, and the big crowd cheered the verdict. The Kellars, who have been under a terrible strain, broke down completely, and, clasping each others hands, husband, wife and sister shed tears of joy. They were too overcome to speak. As soon as the verdict was read the spectators made a rush to get near the Kellars, who were soon hemmed in by a crowd that rendered it impossible for them to leave their seats. Dan Kellar was kept busy grasping the hands of those who came to offer congratulations, and his wife and sister were showered with kisses by the female portion of the audience. Sheriff Butler, with no little difficulty, succeeded in getting the crowd back to give the Kellars an opportunity to personally thank the court and each one of the jurors. Still shedding tears, they advanced toward the jury box, and, taking each juror by the hand, expressed their heartfelt thanks. Mr. Huston, the only representative of the prosecution present, was not slighted, and each of the Kellars grasped him by the hand and assured him of their friendship, saying they knew he had done no more than his duty.

WIN AN OFFICIAL VICTORY.

Spanish Troops Have an Easy Time with Cuban Insurgents.

Madrid, Feb. 15.—Dispatches received here from Havana say that the Spaniards under Gen. Cornell and Col. Hernandez have defeated the insurgents under Gen. Antonio Maceo north of Pinar del Rio, capital of the province of that name.

The dispatches add that the insurgents lost twenty-four killed, while the Spanish loss was only two killed and seven wounded, including Gen. Cornell, who was slightly injured.

It was further stated that Maximo Gomez was still in the vicinity of Havana.

Nicaragua's Ultimatum.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 15.—This government has requested Costa Rica to appoint another commission on the boundary, it is said, as Nicaragua cannot continue to treat with the persons constituting the present commission. Nicaragua proposes to cede to Costa Rica a piece of land along the boundary a mile wide, and desires that all further differences regarding the boundary shall be submitted to the arbitration of the United States. The proposition, it is said, is presented as an ultimatum, but it is not believed that Costa Rica will accept it without modification.

Harkness of New York, one of the heirs of the Harkness estate of this city. The gift is given toward the establishment of a chair of biblical literature in the institution and the entire amount will be at the disposal of the college within the present year.

MOTHER GOOSE LAND IS A QUEER PLACE

TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED PEOPLE STOP THERE.

King Cole Takes Tickets at the Door and All of the Nursery Book Characters Help Entertain the Visitors—Second Presentation Arranged For This Evening.

It was not the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. building, it was Mother Goose Land, and twenty-five hundred laughing, chattering visitors roamed through it. They paid a tribute to Old King Cole, who might without his crown and robe have been taken for J. M. Whitehead. They envied the queen, with her diet of bread and honey, and asked if her name was not Miss Mabel Morse. Old Mother Goose herself was on hand in the person of Mrs. F. D. Murdock, and her large family carried out their parts to perfection. Simple Simon and Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary, received the public from the inside of a booth that no one but Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Cunningham had been seen to enter. Miss Mary Lewis and Miss Franc Edwards reigned in the Queen of Hearts booth, and their hearts, whether filled with cotton batting or jam, found ready sale. The impersonations seen about the hall were excellent, and each booth was appropriately dressed, and about some the crowd was so dense as to make progress impossible. Among those who took part besides the ones already mentioned were:

The Old Woman Who Went to the Sky—Mrs. Fred Vandewater, supported by Mrs. W. B. Conrad and Mrs. Will Porter.

The Maid in the Garden—Mrs. John Roberts, assisted by Mrs. G. W. Chase and Miss Gertrude Cobb.

Jack and Jill—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bennett.

The Old Woman with Victuals and Drink—Mrs. C. D. Childs. Her assistants were Mesdames C. A. Sanborn, J. A. Denniston, E. W. Lowell and William Reed.

The Old Woman Who Lived in the Shoe proved to be Miss Amy Bowles. Miss Elizabeth Palmer looked after the children as a careful eldest daughter should and the other members of the family were Florence Spooner, Mara Baldwin, Edith Soverhill, Cora Soverhill, Leslie Soverhill, Hannah Stearns, Henry Stearns, Beth McDonald, Mabel Rustad, Edith Loomis, Lucy Granger, Maud Spoon, Harold Baker, Walter Airis, Edwin Meade, Floyd Davis, Gladys Heddles, Hazel Bump, Stella Bump and Laura Bump.

Miss Muffett was Marguerite Samuels, and BoPeep, Edna Murdock. Mrs. E. J. Samuels cut off the tails of the three blind mice, and sold apples, oranges, and buttermilk with a commercial acumen that put the original farmer's wife to shame. Mrs. Walter Johnson, as Margery Daw, was the sole proprietor of the soap bubble establishment, while Miss Lou Kent and Miss Mamie Farnsworth sold "Cut Cost Candy Canes." "Try Jack Horner's Plums" was the legend on W. S. Jeffries' booth, and Jack's costume was a thing people could afford to come miles to see.

Ice cream was served at the booth of Snow White and Rose Red and it was hard to serve the customers fast enough. Mesdames Sol Spoon, T. W. Goldin and Nellie Hill had charge of this booth, while Misses Grace Spoon, Jessie Spoon, Lillian Otis, and Ruth Culver served the patrons. Miss Jennie Spoon acting as cashier.

One thing that Mother Goose never heard of was a valentine postoffice, but that postoffice did the biggest business of any booth in the hall. Miss Mellie Bowles presided, and sold valentines at a rate that brought in several different kinds of money. So many valentines and so much fun there were to spare last night, that it was decided the entertainment must be repeated and the doors will be open again this evening. There will be a grand parade by the characters, and music will be furnished by the Y. M. C. A. band.

MANY DANCERS FROM JANESVILLE.

Japlor Promenade Attracted a Number of Bower City Guests to Madison.

Janesville was well represented at the Junior Promenade, the well social event of the year, at the State University. Among those in attendance from this city were Miss Grace Brownell and Messrs. The whole work of arrangement was in the charge of a Janesville boy, Ralph Jackman, who as chairman of the committee, worked out and

TWO THOUSAND VALENTINES SENT

Janesville People Beat Past Records in Backing Don Cupid.

Janesville substance was sent to the four winds of heaven this year in the shape of two thousand valentines. It was the biggest valentine crop in ten years. Let nobody say that Cupid has lost his grip.

There are unkind critics, to be sure, who will say the revival of the valentine business, and the fact that this is leap year, fortify a remarkable coincidence, but this is the thought of the carping critic, a cynical hardshelled bachelor devoid of all proper feeling. Let the truth be admitted.

The flowers of sentiment still bloom in Janesville hearts and will bloom as long as two cents will take a load of love and poetry across town. Every carrier who went out of the Janesville office yesterday had back-breaking loads of lace-edged, pink, and daintily embossed envelopes, and there was an overflow load today. Janesville never did as big a business in the valentine line as this year, and the observant letter carrier and post office clerks say that the quality was also better than usual, in spite of the hard times. There were valentines that cost one cent, and there were plenty of them that cost five dollars. Some cost more, but the lovers who spend more than five dollars in tinsel, lace, and such finery, when the price of house-keeping outfits is going up are scarce.

JACK, THE PEEPER, ON TERRACE ST.

Chas. Acheson Informed That the First Ward Has a Mysterious Fowler.

If Jack, the Ripper, Jack the Egg Sucker, Jack the Dog Stealer, or Jack of some other resentful surname did not bob up once in a while the police would feel lost.

This time it is Jack the Peeper again.

The first ward is his province and tracks in the snow tell where he has been.

Terrace street residents are up in arms.

They complained to Chief Acheson today and said they had found it necessary to set a watch. The footprints of No. 10 shoes under their windows first put them on guard. Two or three have chased the Peeper, who is said to be a man of over medium height and rather stoop-shouldered, wearing a Scotch cap. He is a good runner, and nobody gets near enough to describe his features. Wires have been stretched across some of the Terrace street yards, however, and the next time pursuit is made there will be a hurdle race in which either Jack or his pursuer will come to grief.

LAST SOCIAL OF DANCING CLASS

Little Maskers Fill the Floor of Columbia Hall and Dance Merrily.

Little tots in gay gowns fitted about the floor of Columbia hall last night. They were masked and the appearance they made was picturesque. From 7 to 9 o'clock they held away and after that the older people took the floor and enjoyed themselves until 1 o'clock. The social marked the end of Prof. C. C. Williams' dancing class term and was very successful.

RISKED HIS OWN LIFE TO SAVE THE CHILD

THOMAS WHITE'S PLUNGE OFF AN OCEAN LINER.

A Norwegian Baby Slipped Into the Water and the Former Janesville Manufacturer Lost No Time in Following—A Medal Struck in Recognition Of His Bravery.

Thomas White, the former Janesville box manufacturer, has just returned from Europe. He went there on a mission of sadness. His wife died in Milwaukee not long since, and he was obliged to place his little daughter in the care of his parents, near Liverpool. He took passage from New York on the Cunard Cambria. The passage was a smooth one for the most part, but while in mid ocean a slight sea arose. A little Norwegian baby, the child of a second cabin passenger, climbed on the rail and was pitched into the water. Nobody saw the child fall, but its screams drew Mr. White's eyes to the spot made by its dress in the water. Mr. White is a strong swimmer, and wasted no time.

Went Into The Sea.

"Call, man overboard," he said to a friend near by, and throwing of his coat he jumped over the rail from the promenade deck.

The distance was something over twenty feet to the water, and it was a moment before Mr. White came to the surface after his plunge. The steamer was rushing on, almost an eighth of a mile away. He struck out vigorously to the spot where the baby still floated. It was a two hundred yard swim and before he reached there the little one had gone under. He had marked the spot, however, and was close at hand when the buoyancy of the child's clothes brought it to the surface. Clutching the baby by one hand, he did his best to make headway against the sea, until the ship's boat could reach him. He was able to hold the baby above the surface, so that it was very little exhausted by its stay in the cold water.

Said Nothing to His Friends

Mr. White was very modest about the matter, and none of his Janesville friends would ever have known from his lips of his exciting experience. Before the passengers of the ship got on shore, however, they raised a purse, and a few weeks ago they had made, in London, a medal commemorative of the feat. This reached him only a day or two ago. It was a complete surprise to him, and the testimonial of admiration from the passengers was accompanied by words so warm and sincere as to affect him deeply.

It was through the receipt of this medal that one of his Janesville friends learned of the incident, and by continued questioning got the story.

Balmy Christmas Day at Sea.

Mr. White's passage was a remarkable one. He was on the sea for ten days, at the Christmas season, and although the north Atlantic is a blustery place in the warmest weather, these ten days were so much of an exception that not once during the trip was a passenger compelled to wear an overcoat on deck. England, however, he found wrapped in fog, and although he expected to make a stay of some length, he was forced to return to America at once on account of his health. He is now closing up a few business affairs in Janesville, preliminary to returning to Milwaukee.

SECOND WARD FUND IN GOOD SHAPE

Fifth Avenue Grade a Special Improvement, Not Assessed to the Ward.

"A misunderstanding has grown out of the recent statement regarding the expenses for street improvement during the last year," said a Second ward man today. The Second ward is credited with having the most expensive street in the city, as far as the street commissioner's report for 1895 goes. The street in question is Fifth avenue. But it should not be understood that the expense of grading and fitting the street is charged against the ward fund. The improvement was a special one, which was submitted to vote, and is covered by a special tax. As far as the expenditure of the ward fund is concerned, the Second ward has been an example of economy during the last year.

JANESVILLE MAN'S WASHINGTON OBSERVATIONS.

Chatty Letter From a Friend of The Gazette Regarding the Part That Wisconsin Men Play in the Drama Now Staged on the Potomac's Shores.

"That a settlement of the Fox river difficulty is in sight there is no doubt," writes a friend of The Gazette from Washington. "Congressman Cook, Minor and Senator Vilas have been in consultation several times during the past week, and Congressman Minor's bill looking to the regulation of the level of waters in the great lakes which was introduced into the house on Tuesday last, was undoubtedly the outcome of the labors of the two congressmen and Senator Vilas. The bill is now before the river and harbor committee and with Congressman Cooper, a member of that body, it can safely be said that it will not die in committee, death being the fate of similar measures. Mr. Cooper will be on the alert to see that Wisconsin's interests are furthered as far as possible. The bill of Minor's, will, no doubt, be incorporated in the regular river and harbor appropriation bill, which will be reported to the house some time soon.

Laboring With Committee Men.
"The Wisconsin members have been particularly active in seeing the individual members of the river and harbor committee, with a view of securing favorable consideration of this bill. Chairman of the Committee Hookes has expressed his willingness to give the matter careful consideration and no doubt will be convinced that the bill is a just measure and should by all means be put upon the statute books. Before presenting his measure to the house, Congressman Minor first secured General Doe's sanction. In point of fact, the approbation of that official was essential; else its passage through the river and harbor committee would not be tantamount to a cinch, as it is believed to be now.

Some Presidential Gossip.
"There is quite a bit of politics in Washington these days, of course the presidential question is foremost in the minds of most Washington visitors. Politicians from different sections of the country who drop in on Washington from time to time invariably express their opinion as to who the best man for president would be. People from the Badger state, especially are McKinley and Allison men; while from the more eastern section of the country, Reed's name is not inconspicuous. John Stevens, of Neenah, who has been in Washington for several days past, visiting friends, dropped over to the capital this morning and I caught him just as he was about to leave the building. Upon being asked what he thought of republican prospects in Wisconsin this fall he said:

Big Majority is Assured.
"You may quote me as saying that Wisconsin will roll up the largest republican majority this coming election that she ever has in years. Everything is coming our way. I scent victory from afar. It's due time and don't you forget that. I told our people two years in advance of the panic of 93-94, and I tell them eight months ahead of the great victory in store for all republicans in this land. As soon as this administration goes out of power, we will have some of the good old times once more. Away with Cleveland! On with good times and may it be many years before another devastating democratic administration is ushered into power.
"The words of the Neenah millionaire are in substance, the language used by a majority of Wisconsin people who visited Washington.

After Filled Cheese Men.
"Congressman Cook's 'Filled Cheese' bill has attracted wide spread attention. He has been inundated with letters from all sections of the country, especially from Ohio, Indiana, Texas, Wisconsin and other cattle raising sections. The bill as referred to the ways and means committee of the house where favorable action is expected. Meanwhile delegations from Wisconsin are constantly coming to Washington urging the passage of this measure.

Cooper Isn't a Reed Man.
"The Wisconsin delegation is quite popular in Washington, especially with southern and western members. Congressman Minor, in particular, seems to be a favorite with his fellow members. The remainder of the delegation, with one exception—that is Babcock—is well liked. Congressman Cooper, of course, being an old member, is better acquainted with congressional work and attends to it with a will. However, it may be said that he is not a Reed presidential boomer since the speaker saw fit to leave him out of his old committee, the Pacific railroads."

IF PARENTS OF SICKLY CHILDREN WOULD ONLY HEED

Only Give Mind and Thought to This Article.

Many Little Sufferers Will Be Relieved.

Thousands of Valuable Lives Saved to the World.

Parents Must Heed For Their Child's Sake.

One of New York's leading physicians, in a recent published article, speaks of the terrible feelings of the anxious mother when she sees her child in a fit.

But there is help, and help close at hand. Here is what a parent, Mr. Herbert E. Harrington, Box 274, Adams, Mass., says to all the parents of this land.

"Our little boy Royal had fits. He would drop on the floor, sometimes forward, sometimes backwards, as if he was dead, and if he was eating, his head would drop to his plate, so we had to hold up his head all the time he was eating. If he went across the floor, some one had to lead him and the same would run from his mouth. His stomach was so weak that his food would not digest, and every muscle of his body would twitch so it was impossible for him to do anything.

"For two years we took him to our local doctors and they could do nothing to help him, and they advised us to take him to a specialist. We did so and he told us that he had epilepsy and was incurable. He lost his speech for six weeks and continued having the fits so he would have nine or ten in a night.

"We saw Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy advertised in the paper, so we got a bottle and gave it to Royal as directed, and in three days the fits left him and we have not seen anything of them since. Now he goes to school and seems to be as healthy as anyone can be."

Give Dr. Greene's Nervura to your children in the beginning of the trouble; at the first symptoms of nervousness, irritable temper, pale, thin look, loss of appetite and spirit. These with sleepless, restless nights, cries in the night, grinding the teeth, twitching eyes, dull appearance of face, suddenly waking startled and nervous from sleep, are the sure indications that fits will result. Dr. Greene's Nervura will cure these troubles—make your child strong and well.

Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is purely vegetable and harmless and can be given to infants or children of any age. It is a physician's prescription, the discovery of the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York City, and he can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

GRATIFYING RESULTS.

Interesting Experiments with the New Stomach Remedy.

Not a Patent Medicine, But a Safe Cure for All Forms of Indigestion.

The results of recent investigation, have established, beyond question, the great value of the new preparation for indigestion and stomach troubles; it is composed of the digestive acids, pepsin, bismuth, Golden Seal and similar stomachics, prepared in the form of 20 grain lozenges, pleasant to the taste, convenient to carry when traveling, harmless to the most delicate stomach, and probably the safest, most effective cure yet discovered for indigestion, sour stomach, loss of appetite and flesh, nausea, sick headaches, palpitation of heart, and the many symptoms arising from imperfect digestion of food. They cure because they cause the food to be promptly and thoroughly digested before it has time to sour, ferment and poison the blood and nervous system.

Judge Frank Ives, of District Court of Crookston, Minn., says: For some time I have used Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, with seeming great benefit, with few exceptions, I have not been so free from indigestion in twenty-five years.

Geo. W. Roosevelt, U. S. Consul to Brussels, Belgium: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, safe, pleasant to take, convenient to carry, give keen appetite, perfect digestion.

Mr. W. D. Tomlin, Mechanical Engineer, Duluth, Minn.: One box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets has done its work, and I am again gaining flesh and strength.

O. E. Ransom, Hustonville, Ky.: I was distressed and annoyed for two years with throwing up food, often two or three times a day; had no certainty of retaining a meal if I ate one. Four boxes of the tablets from my druggist, have fully cured me. I find them pleasant to take, convenient to carry.

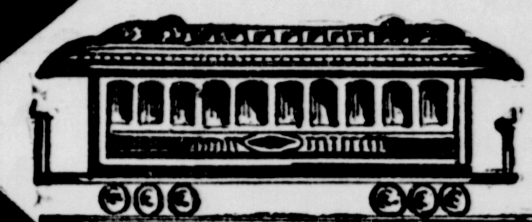

Rev. G. D. Brown, Mondovi, Wis.: The effect of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is simply marvelous; a quite hearty dinner of broiled beef steak causes no distress since I began their use.

Over six thousand people in the state of Mich. alone in 1894 were cured of stomach troubles by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

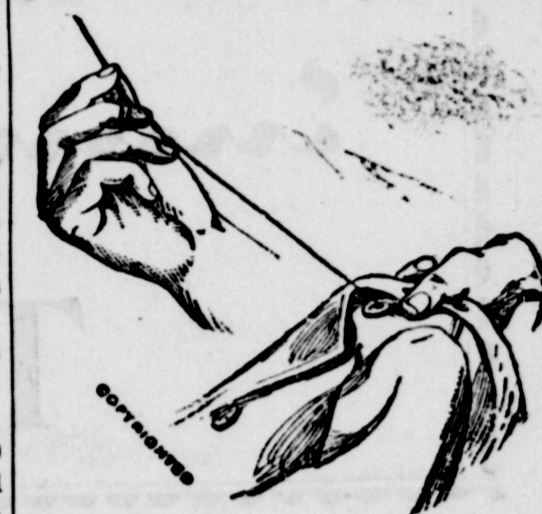

Full sized packages may be found at all druggists at 50c, or sent by mail on receipt of price from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1564—Galileo Galilei, the noted astronomer, born; died in 1642.

1763—Treaty of Hubertsburg and final settlement of all the issues of the French and Indian war; it was merely supplementary to the treaty of Paris.

1868—John Augustus Sutter, noted California pioneer, born in Kandel, Baden; Dr. DAMROSCH, shipwrecked and left in California July 2, 1839; died in Washington 1880.

1885—Dr. Leopold Damrosch, the eminent orchestra leader, died in New York city; born in Roven, Russia, in 1832. Dr. Damrosch surmounted great difficulties in order to follow his bent for a musical career. In youth he practiced on the violin by stealth on account of the opposition of his parents. According to their wishes he entered the University of Berlin and graduated with high honors as a doctor of medicine. Meanwhile his leisure had been devoted to music, and he became famous as a violinist. Favored by Liszt he soon became a conductor and the fame of his symphonic society in Breslau spread throughout Germany. In 1871 Dr. Damrosch appeared in New York as conductor, composer and violinist. He founded the Oratorio society and introduced German opera in America.

1888—Mount Vernon, Ill., nearly destroyed by a tornado. D. R. Locke (Petroleum V. Nasby) died at Toledo; born 1834.

1890—Holland McTyeire, bishop of Methodist Episcopal church south, died at Nashville, aged 65.

1895—Richard F. Trevellick, prominent labor organizer, died in Detroit. Dr. Samuel Spencer Stafford, founder of the Stafford Ink company, died in New York.

Rock County Republican Convention

A Republican County Convention is hereby called at the court house, in the city of Janesville on Friday, March 13, 1896, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention, to be held in Milwaukee, March 18, 1896.

This Rock county convention will elect delegates also to the congressional district convention when called, and transact such other business as proper for this convention.

The different towns and wards of Rock county will be entitled to delegates as follows: Towns of Avon, Beloit, Bradford, Harmony, Janesville, Johnston, La Prairie, Porter, two each; Center, Clinton, Lima, Mancello, Plymouth, Porter, Turue, Union, Clinton village, Fifth ward of Janesville, three each; Fulton, Newark, Spring Valley, First ward city of Beloit, Edgerton, four each; Second ward city of Beloit, Second and Fourth wards city of Janesville, five each; Evansville, Third and Fourth wards, city of Beloit, six each; First and Third wards city of Janesville, seven each; Milton, eight. By order County Republican Committee, W. T. VANKIEK, Chairman.

Dated Janesville, Feb. 7, 1896.

NO CHRAP MONEY WANTED.

There is no encouragement for cheap money men in the news from Washington. The vote on the senate amendment was a record-making vote and demolished all hopes of the silverites as far as this congress is concerned.

The motion to concur was beaten by a vote of 215 to 90, a majority of 125. Silver men had predicted a much greater showing of strength, and were disappointed. One hundred votes had been conceded to them by their most determined opponents.

An analysis of the vote shows that 184 republicans and 31 democrats voted against concurrence and 58 democrats, 25 republicans and 7 populists for concurrence.

Fifty cent dollars will not be coined as long as a republican majority controls financial legislation.

GOVERNOR MUST SENTENCE.

Kansas has a law, passed in 1872, which provides that when a man is convicted of murder in the first degree, he shall be confined in the penitentiary for one year, after which the governor may issue a warrant for the execution of the death sentence. But no governor has yet taken the responsibility of issuing such a warrant, and thus capital punishment is practically abolished in the state. Recently an attempt was made to force an execution by proceedings designed to show special cause for it, but the supreme court decides that the matter rests entirely with the governor, and that there can be no hanging unless he sees fit to order it.

SUCCESS OF THE LOAN.

Shrewd men think that the extraordinary success of the new government loan was due to the extraordinary publicity which attended its negotiation. Think it over, and no other adequate explanation will be conceivable; and the gain has not been the government's alone—perhaps the larger profit has been the consequent gain to the people. Publicity rightly handled and well driven home always works in that way—it brings a golden stream of direct results, and a later harvest of confidence and good will that is worth more even in dollars than collars can express.

FORTY YEARS OF GOOD WORK.

This year the republican party will celebrate its fortieth birthday. Its prospects were never brighter. Many republicans thought the outlook was somewhat gloomy for a time, even in 1864, 1869 and 1872, but no republican has any such feeling at present. In the three years named, when the election returns were overwhelmingly in favor of the republicans, many democrats had high hopes of victory for their party during most of the campaign. It would be hard to find a democrat in that mood in 1896.

WHAT OF THE HACKMEN.

Is Niagara really worth more for power than for any other purposes? They think so down in New York state and say that the scenic glory of the Falls soon must be sacrificed to practical ends.

New York's law makers should not be hasty. Can a combination of manufacturers hope to catch the amount of outside money that Niagara Falls hackmen die? It is doubtful. There is ground for the suspicion that these alleged manufacturers are simply non-union hackmen who threaten to drain the falls dry merely to bring the Niagara Falls's Hackmen's Protective and Benevolent Union to terms.

Science is going too fast when a man cannot think another is a liar without getting knocked down for it. The world doesn't stand in need of apparatus showing people's thoughts. Why the police would have to be quadrupled and then the killing couldn't be stopped. We don't want to read people's unspoken or unwritten thoughts nor do we wish our own read.

It took W. W. Astor a long time to discharge the English editor of his London paper for printing anti-American sentiments. That sort of stuff has been printed in the paper ever since Astor bought it. Perhaps Mr. Astor is thinking of returning to plebeian America to live and is only jollying us up a little.

Spanish money may have nothing to do with the change in the editorial tone of certain metropolitan newspapers on the desirability of recognizing the belligerency of the Cubans and then again it may.

Styles may come and styles may go but the certified check will never lose its popularity. It may not be as pretty as some of the new stripes and novelty effects, but it has qualities they lack.

Senator Call of Fla., and Butler of N. C., appear to be trying to see which can get upon his feet the oftenest in the senate; also which can do the most fool-talking.

DR. G. H. BEDFORD BUILDS A RENDERING PLANT.

Twenty Knocked-Out Steeds Have Been Bought For a Starter and Car-load Shipments are Expected When Warm Weather Sets In—Plant Is Now Building.

Three miles east of Janesville there is going up an institution of a novel sort—a horse-rendering establishment. Dr. G. H. Bedford is the proprietor. The Ed. Brown farm in La Prairie is the site, and the establishment will be one of the largest in the state, of its kind.

William Demming has the contract for the carpenter work and James Shearer for the masonry. The machinery is furnished by a Batavia, Ill. firm. There will be three kettles, with a capacity of 200 gallons, each, separators, steam engine, complete slaughter house equipment, etc.

The products go to the Chicago soap factories, contracts having been closed for the entire output. The bone will be used for fertilizing material. Twenty head of horses have already been bought, and in the spring they are expected to be brought in in car-load lots.

While Dr. Bedford will have personal supervision of the plant, he will not remove from this city, but will manage the rendering establishment by telephone, making his headquarters at 4 East Milwaukee street.

SMOKY JORDON GETS IN JAIL.

He spent the night in a cell, and got out of town this morning. Jordan is a well known Chicago crook, and Chief Acheson thought he was safer locked up.

"He worked this town three years ago," said the chief, "and I didn't intend to give him another chance."

ODD WHISKY ORDER A CLUE FOR POLICE

PROHIBITION EVANSVILLE HAS ANOTHER UPHEAVAL.

Name of a Prominent Local Doctor Signed to an Order For Spiritus Frumenti—Doctor Disowns the Bill and Officers Begin to Smell a Mice.

An Evansville man wanted fifteen gallons of whisky, and didn't want to sign his name to the order.

The mystery made work for District Attorney Jackson today.

A telegram came to one of the Janesville wholesale liquor houses a day or two ago, ordering the shipment of fifteen gallons of whisky to the prohibition city. The package was to bear no address but a special mark, and was to be charged to the writer, who signed a prominent Evansville doctor's name.

The whisky was sent, but an attempt to collect revealed the fact that the doctor knew nothing about it, and that the whisky had evidently been ordered for other than medicinal purposes.

Word reached the police, and the county authorities were asked to investigate. District Attorney Jackson was in Evansville today and found that arrests had been made and a thriving "beer club" brought to light. An adjournment was taken so that more evidence could be secured.
